Go Math

Go Math-Chapter 5, Dividing Decimals, continues. Adding zeros to the dividend took some practice, but it clicked last week. The test is on Thursday.

Religion

It's all about Advent and the beauty of the Christmas season. Also this week, Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas.

Stockings were sent home for Catholic Charities. Please return them tomorrow.

Our reader for mass this week is Carlos. Bracciano and Lily C. will present the gifts, Alex will read the Prayers of the Faithful and Alyssa, Nathan and Sofie will alter serve.

Social Studies

Explorers and trading cards continue. Most of this will be done in class.

Science

We're finishing the Ecosystems unit. The NV Energy presentation last week was great reinforcement of the material and the kids enjoyed it.

UNR Engineering comes for a lesson this Wednesday.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols. Once you have chosen an image, place it close to

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

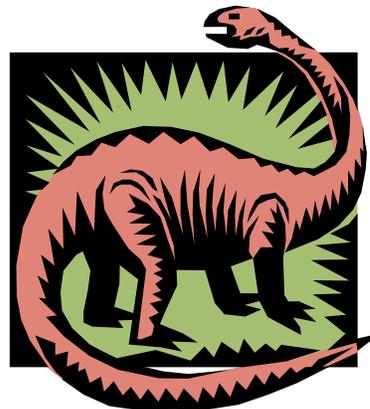

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a bi-annual charity auction.
