

Fifth Grade News

From the desk of Ms. Noonan

Math

We have started Chapter 10, Convert Units of Measure. They have a worksheet due Wednesday, and tonight's homework is 15 minutes on IXL, category 'Z.'

Religion

Unit 5 and morality continues.

Science

We'll open our landfills this week and complete the scientific method on the experiment.

Matter continues, pages E2-29 in the textbook. Then we're on to atoms and elements.

Egg drop instructions are coming home today.

Social Studies

Amendment reports are still being graded, but what I've seen are great. Good job on the bibliographies.

Family Life (please read the detailed letter) and swim permission slip are enclosed.

Support our parish and school at the Aces Game this Friday!

Got Tickets?

ELA (English Language Arts)

Writer Workshop

Another My Access prompt this week and note-taking on The Catholic Reformation.

Spelling

Unit 35 and a test on Friday.

Vocabulary

Unit 18 notecards due Friday. Test 5/22.

Our next book report genre is science fiction and the project is a book talk. Due dates vary and have been assigned.

We will finish Island of the Blue Dolphins, by Scott O'Dell this week. If you need reading counts points, you may take a test on the book!

Today's JH tip on the back...
"Encourage School Clubs, Sports and More."

The 4th Quarter Reading Counts requirement is 20 Points, as close as possible to their lexile.

As we honor the Blessed Virgin Mary during May, let us also honor her beloved spouse St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus. His manly yes to the will of God is a great example for all men and women. He was not sinless, but he shows all sinners how we can grow in virtue and strength.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

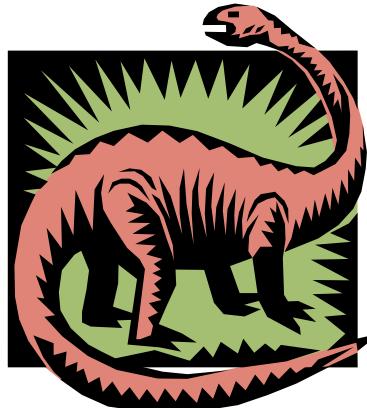

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.
