Writer Workshop

They had time to wrap up
My Access today.

*****

Please check the Community Connection for the schedule of activities happening this week!

*****

There's a Washington Post article about JH enclosed.

*****

THE CHILD CONTINUED TO GROW AND BECOME STRONG, INCREASING IN WISDOM; AND THE GRACE OF GOD WAS UPON HIM.
- LUKE 2:40

DON'T LOOK NOW,
BUT IT FINALLY FEELS LIKE SUMMER.

THANK YOU FOR SHARING YOUR CHILDREN WITH ME!

Please take note of the IXL
summer math requirements
coming home again today.
Yes, this is for incoming 6th graders.

Math

Were having fun with geometry this week.

Religion

End of the year activities and a lot of time for skits!

Science

Experiment's all week!

Social Studies

We're jumping around a bit and covering Chapter 10, 'The Early Republic.'

The flatboat shoebox project is tomorrow.

Inside Story Headline

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Your business tag line here.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

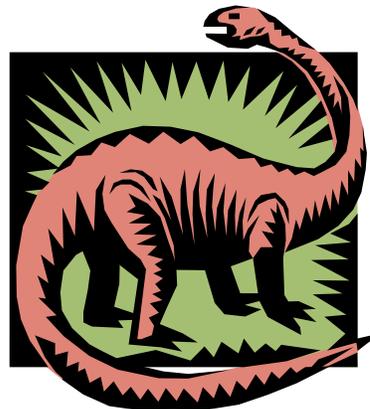

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
